

Membership Parameters

1. National membership is required to be officially recognized as a member of the national entity known as the American Medical Student Association.
2. Local members may freely participate in local activities without becoming national members.
3. National AMSA leadership positions are separate from local AMSA leadership positions. These national positions have no direct positional influence on local UF Premed AMSA . National positions may be obtained at the annual spring convention.
4. UF Premed AMSA highly recommends joining the national AMSA organization. It is necessary to be a national member to attend the annual convention. National membership also offers many benefits and services.
5. For graduating members, the local UF Premed AMSA membership grace period will last through the entire summer C semester. All local privileges and benefits, such as Equal Access Clinic, shall be granted until the summer semester ends. After the grace period, the student may only continue local membership, and all privileges/benefits, should he/she continue as a UF student not enrolled in any Medical School .
6. UF Premed AMSA reserves the right to terminate a student's local membership should he/she no longer qualify for local membership under the terms of the local chapter organization's constitution.
7. UF Premed AMSA reserves the right to halt a student's potential local membership should he/she not fulfill any terms or requirements set forth by the local chapter organization's constitution.
