

Good Standing

Member Responsibilities, Revision 13, 2008-09

- The levels of Good Standing are defined as the following:
 - Bronze
 - Attend 3 of 5 general meetings in each semester.
 - Earn 2 social points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Earn 2 financial points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Be in good standing in the member's primary committee as defined by the committee directors.
 - Silver
 - Attend 4 of 5 general meetings in each semester.
 - Earn at least 3 social points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Earn at least 3 financial points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Be in good standing in the member's primary committee as defined by the committee directors.
 - Gold
 - Attend 5 of 5 general meetings in each semester.
 - Earn 4 or more social points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Earn 4 or more financial points through various activities held by UF Premed AMSA.
 - Be in good standing in the member's primary committee as defined by the committee directors.
- In the semester which a member joins or renews membership (Spring or Fall), he/she will be automatically given credit for the first general meeting of that semester.
 - A joining/renewing fall member will automatically receive an attendance point for the first fall general meeting, but not the first spring general meeting. He/she is accountable for attending the first spring general meeting.
 - A joining/renewing spring member will automatically receive an attendance point for the first spring general meeting, but not the first fall general meeting. He/she is accountable for attending the first fall general meeting.
- Good standing is computed separately for both Fall and Spring semesters. It is not computed in the summer semester.
- Good standing serves as a minimum participation guideline to which a local AMSA member should follow in order to experience AMSA.
- Good standing is not a requirement to remain a member of UF Premed AMSA.
 - It is used to evaluate members who wish to run for any leadership position in UF Premed AMSA including Executive Board, Director, or Associate Director.
- A member must be in good standing for one semester to be considered for the Equal Access Support Committee.
- Tentative member good standing records are available at any time at <http://www.ufpremed.org/viewstanding.php>
- Standing records will be posted at the end of each semester and are subject to correction by members.
 - Should a member have a dispute, this is the final opportunity for him/her to dispute the standings. All corrections are subject to verification.

Summary

- 1. Good standing is a guideline for getting the most out of your AMSA experience.
- 2. The more active you are, the more you benefit from membership.
- 3. If you want a leadership position in the future, get active now!
- 4. You can see what events you've attended so far at www.ufpremed.org/viewstanding.php